

Norcool Cold Room

- build it yourself or order a prefabricated unit ...
- the choice is yours...

A cold room will provide you with all the space you could wish for, and a bit more besides. You can either build your cold room yourself with the help of our instructions, or you can order one of our prefabricated modular rooms.

If you are planning to build your own cold room it is important to be precise. Please refer to our supplementary building instructions on www.norcool.com.

Our modular rooms will provide you with the following benefits:

- 100% guarantee against damage caused by damp
 - Mould and rot
- Very easy to keep clean
 - Smooth surfaces
- Very easy to assemble
 - Assembled in 1 hour
- You can take it with you when you move
 - Easy to dismantle
- Supplied in 4 different sizes – Cover your requirements

Our modular rooms are supplied in the following sizes:

- Room A (2420 litres)
